I understand that I am required to perform at least five hours of community service documented on the attached form(s). More community service forms are available on the NJHS information board near the main office or in the counseling office. In addition, I am responsible for completing five more hours of community service before the end of the school year and maintaining both my academic achievement and positive citizenship at Mears Middle School.

I will attend the mandatory Induction Ceremony, scheduled for February 13, 2018 at 6:30 P.M. A dress rehearsal will take place after school on February 12, 2018 (students will need to be picked up at 4:00 P.M.). Participation in both the rehearsal and the induction ceremony is required by all new and current members.

I certify that the information presented in this packet is complete and accurate. I understand that completing this form does not guarantee acceptance into NJHS.
